Traditionally attributed to the Benedictine monks of the Abbey of Cluny or the Cistercian monks, the hymn was originally conceived as a Marian antiphon sung at the end of Compline (night prayer). Its Latin text has seen numerous adaptations over the centuries, but the core themes of Marian veneration, supplication, and hope remain consistent.

- Protestant: Focus on biblical passages and her example of faith and obedience as models for personal discipleship.
- Ecumenical Approaches: Emphasize shared respect and admiration for her role in salvation history without necessarily adopting all doctrinal positions.
