For Stott, integrity was non-negotiable, and a leader's credibility depended on their fidelity to biblical principles.

He emphasized that effective Christian leadership is not about personal charisma or political savvy but about faithfully representing Christ through one's conduct and teachings. Leaders must be committed to continuous spiritual growth, modeling Christlike character in all aspects of life.

Humility and Servant Leadership

One of the most distinctive features of John Stott's leadership philosophy is his emphasis on humility. He viewed leadership as a form of service rather than power or authority. Borrowing from Jesus' teachings in Matthew 20:25-28, Stott championed the model of servant leadership, where the leader's primary role is to serve others and elevate their spiritual well-being.
