The structure is straightforward but offers immense creative flexibility. For example, in a poem dedicated to Tennessee, each line would start with a letter from the word "Tennessee," creating a vertical acrostic.

Key features include:

- The initial letter of each line corresponds sequentially to the letters in the chosen word.
- The content of each line elaborates on or relates to the theme represented by that letter.
- The poem can be as simple or as complex as the poet desires, often combining descriptive language, historical references, and emotional expression.

Variations of Acrostic Poems

While the classic form involves starting each line with the successive letters of a word, variations include:

- Diagonal acrostics: where the initial letters form the word along a diagonal.
- Hidden acrostics: where the acrostic is embedded within the poem but not immediately obvious.
- Reverse acrostic: where the word is spelled backward.
