- View Your TFN: The ATO dashboard will display your personal details, including your TFN.

Note: If you haven?t set up a MyGov account or linked it to the ATO, this method won?t be immediately available. Setting up a MyGov account is free and straightforward, but it requires verifying your identity.

3. Contact the Australian Taxation Office Directly

If you are unable to locate your TFN through your documents or online accounts, contacting the ATO directly is an effective fallback.

How to contact the ATO:

- Phone: Call the ATO?s individual inquiries line at 13 28 61 (from within Australia). Be prepared to verify your identity through questions related to your personal details, previous tax lodgements, or superannuation accounts.

- In Person: Visit your local ATO shopfront or service center with appropriate identification.
- Online Contact: Use the ATO's secure messaging service via your myGov account if linked, or submit an enquiry through their online contact forms.

Important: Due to privacy and security measures, the ATO will only disclose your TFN after verifying your identity. This process may involve confirming details such as your full name, date of birth, address, and other identifiers.

4. Review Your Financial and Employment Records

Employers, payroll providers, and financial institutions typically retain records of your TFN, especially if they've issued you PAYG summaries or tax statements.

Sources include:

- Payslips: Some employers include your TFN on your pay slips.
- Superannuation Fund Statements: Your super fund statements may display your TFN.
- Bank or Investment Statements: Financial institutions often record your TFN for tax purposes.
- Previous Tax Returns: If you've lodged tax returns before, your TFN might appear on those documents.

Tip: If you have online accounts with your super fund or bank, log in to check whether your TFN is stored in your profile.

What To Do If You Can't Find Your TFN

Sometimes, despite efforts, you may still be unable to find your TFN. In such cases, it's important to understand the steps to take to avoid delays or penalties.

1. Lodge a Notice of Assessment Request

If you've previously lodged a tax return, your TFN should be on your Notice of Assessment. If you've lost this document, contact the ATO to request a copy.

2. Complete a TFN Declaration Form

If you're starting a new job and don't know your TFN, you can complete a Tax File Number Declaration form and submit it to your employer. The employer will then contact the ATO on your behalf to verify and retrieve your TFN.

3. Apply for a New TFN

In rare cases, if you cannot locate your TFN and cannot retrieve it through the above methods, you can apply for a new one by:

- Visiting an ATO shopfront or service center.
- Providing proof of identity (such as your birth certificate, passport, or driver's license).
- Completing the Application for a Tax File Number for Individuals form.

Note: Applying for a new TFN when you already have one can complicate your records, so ensure you exhaust all options to locate your existing number first.

Best Practices for Managing Your TFN

Once you've located your TFN, it's essential to manage it responsibly:

- Keep it Secure: Store your TFN in a safe place and avoid sharing it unnecessarily.
- Use Digital Storage: Save digital copies securely, using encrypted cloud storage or password-protected files.
- Avoid Sharing: Only provide your TFN to trusted entities such as your employer, financial institutions, or the ATO.
- Update Your Records: Ensure your TFN is accurately recorded in all relevant accounts to prevent issues with your tax and superannuation.

Conclusion: Your Path to Finding Your TFN Is Clear

In summary, locating your Tax File Number involves a systematic approach:

- Review your physical documents like tax notices, payment summaries, and super statements.
- Check your online portals, especially your MyGov account linked to the ATO.
- Contact the ATO directly if needed, providing necessary identification.
- Consult your previous employer or financial institutions for records.
- If all else fails, apply for a new TFN through the ATO with proper identification.
