Background and Childhood

Saint Teresa of Avila, born Teresa Sánchez de Cepeda y Ahumada in 1515 in Gotarrendura, Spain, was raised in a devout Catholic family. Her father, Alonso Sánchez de Cepeda, was a wealthy merchant, and her mother, Beatriz de Ahumada, was deeply religious. From an early age, Teresa exhibited an intense spiritual inclination, often contemplating divine matters and expressing a desire for holiness. Her childhood was immersed in the religious culture of 16th-century Spain, which was characterized by Catholic piety and fervor.

Educational and Religious Awakening

At the age of seven, Teresa was introduced to the Catholic faith through her family's devout practices. Her education was somewhat typical for girls of her social class but became more focused on religious studies as she matured. At 14, she entered a convent of Benedictine nuns, where her spiritual life deepened. Despite her initial comfort within traditional religious routines, Teresa soon sensed a calling that transcended her convent's existing spiritual practices, which would eventually lead her to challenge and reform her order.

The Passionate Mystic: Mystical Experiences and Spiritual Visions

Initial Mystical Encounters

Teresa's mystical experiences began early in her spiritual journey. She reported vivid visions, profound feelings of divine presence, and episodes of spiritual ecstasy that often left her speechless or overwhelmed. These encounters were characterized by an intense longing for union with God, which she described as an almost physical sensation—an unquenchable desire to be wholly united with the divine.

The Interior Castle and Divine Union

One of her most influential works, The Interior Castle, published in 1577, encapsulates her understanding of the soul's journey toward divine intimacy. She visualized the soul as a series of concentric castles or mansions, each representing deeper levels of spiritual development. Her passionate descriptions emphasize that the ultimate goal of the soul is to reach the innermost chamber, where divine union occurs—a mystical marriage with Christ.
