Answer: Hawthorne explores sin as an inevitable and universal aspect of human nature. The novel depicts sin not only as moral wrongdoing but also as a source of personal growth and redemption. Additionally, characters like Reverend Dimmesdale grapple with secret sins, showing that concealment often worsens their moral and emotional suffering.

- Question: In what ways does Hester Prynne seek redemption throughout the novel?

Answer: Hester seeks redemption by embracing her punishment and living with dignity and grace. Hawthorne suggests that the rigid moral code of the Puritans often masks their own moral failings, revealing the societal tendency to judge others harshly while avoiding self-examination.
