Historical Background and Significance

Founding and Vision

The museum was founded by Isabella Stewart Gardner in 1903, inspired by her travels through Europe and her desire to create a space that reflected her eclectic taste and love for art. Her vision was to assemble a collection that would inspire and educate visitors, all within an environment that celebrated beauty, intimacy, and discovery.

Isabella's commitment went beyond merely collecting art; she meticulously designed the museum's layout, emphasizing an intimate and immersive experience. Her belief was that art should be accessible and integrated into everyday life, leading her to design the museum as a personal residence—an idea that persists today.

The Great Art Heist

The museum's history is also marked by one of the most infamous art thefts in history. In 1990, 13 masterpieces, including works by Vermeer, Rembrandt, and Degas, were stolen in a daring heist. Despite ongoing investigations and extensive security enhancements, the missing artworks remain at large, adding a layer of intrigue and mystery to the museum's narrative.
