Origins and Background of the Coloring Book

From Book to Interactive Experience

The Garden, the Curtain, the Cross was originally published as a beautifully illustrated picture book aimed at children ages 3 to 7. Its purpose was to distill complex biblical themes?particularly the story of Jesus? death and resurrection?into accessible language and imagery suitable for young minds.

Building on the success of the original book, the creators developed a supplementary coloring book to deepen engagement. This transition from storytelling to hands-on activity was driven by a desire to make biblical truths memorable through creative participation. The coloring book serves as an extension of the narrative, encouraging children to interact with the story not just by listening or reading but by visually processing and expressing their understanding.

Partnerships and Production

Produced by The Good Book Company, a well-respected Christian publisher known for faith-based educational resources, the coloring book maintains high standards of quality both in content and design. Its collaboration with skilled illustrators and theologians ensures that each page aligns accurately with biblical teachings while remaining appealing to children.
