Origins and Creation of "This Is San Francisco"

Historical Context and Inspiration

Published in 1983 by the San Francisco-based publishing house Greenlight Press, "This Is San Francisco" was conceived as a tribute to the city's unique character. The early 1980s marked a period of cultural renaissance in San Francisco, with a burgeoning appreciation for local history, arts, and community identity. The book's creators, author Lisa Chen and illustrator Marco Delgado, aimed to craft a narrative that would introduce children to the city's landmarks, neighborhoods, and linguistic diversity in an accessible and engaging manner.

Lisa Chen, a local educator and author, was inspired by her own childhood experiences exploring San Francisco's neighborhoods. Recognizing the importance of language as a tool for understanding place and community, Chen sought to develop a "lingua"—a language or dialect—that encapsulated the city's multicultural essence. Delgado's vibrant illustrations complemented Chen's poetic text, capturing the city's dynamic spirit.

The Creative Process and Collaboration

The development of "This Is San Francisco" was a collaborative effort rooted in deep local engagement. The authors and illustrators conducted extensive fieldwork, visiting neighborhoods such as Chinatown, the Mission District, Haight-Ashbury, and the Tenderloin. They interviewed residents, documented local slang, and incorporated authentic linguistic elements into the narrative.
