- High Competition: Limited spaces meant that only top-performing applicants secured admission.

Unlike typical annual planners, this model covers two full academic years. This extended timeline allows students and educators to plan ahead without needing to purchase a new planner mid-year. It simplifies long-term goal setting and provides a comprehensive overview of academic commitments.

- Monthly and Weekly Spreads

- Monthly Overview: Each month has a dedicated spread that includes a full-page calendar. These pages are ideal for marking important dates like exams, project deadlines, holidays, and personal commitments. The minimalist design provides ample space for notes.

- Weekly Layout: The weekly spreads are designed with clarity and space in mind. Typically, each week is spread across two pages with sections for each day, allowing users to jot down appointments, tasks, and reminders. Some versions include additional sections for weekly goals or priorities.

- Academic and Personal Planning Sections

Given its academic focus, the planner incorporates specialized pages:

- Semester Planning: Pages dedicated to outlining semester goals, important dates, and milestones.

- Exam and Assignment Trackers: Dedicated spaces to record exam dates, project deadlines, and study schedules.

- Class Schedule Pages: Templates to help plan weekly classes, labs, or study groups.

- Notes Sections: Ample blank or lined pages for brainstorming, journaling, or extra notes.
