- Reflect on your academic interests or professional needs.
- Identify gaps or unresolved issues within existing literature.
- Formulate specific, achievable research questions.
- Ensure your objectives are measurable and focused.

Example: Instead of asking, "What is the impact of social media?" specify, "How does daily Instagram usage influence the self-esteem of teenagers aged 13-19?"

Developing Research Questions

Good research questions are:

- Clear and focused: Narrowed enough to be manageable.
- Researchable: Capable of being answered through data collection.
